WHO SHOULD ATTEND

STARTUPS

- Huddle Global is built for entrepreneur's that brings together investors, customers, media and mentors.
- The Huddle 100 Competition kicks off on the first day of the event with 100 companies pitching in the first round with 10 of the best shortlisted for pitching the next day. These companies will not just get evaluated but also get proper mentorship by the top-notch industry leaders and coaches. Out of 10 the semi finalists are shortlisted and the finalist are chosen. The Winner will receives great attention from investors, media, potential partners, and government officials.
- Start-ups will have an opportunity to showcase their product at the designated start-up square (demo booth) in the heart of the venue. The prime location of these booths ensure constant activity with potential clients, partners, media and most significantly investors and other founders.

ACADEMIA

- We love innovation and science, and we show it by providing several opportunities for academics, post docs, professors, researchers etc.
- To increase communication between academia and entrepreneurs, we want to encourage doctoral students and other research personnel to attend Huddle Global by providing Academic Passes.
- We encourage students to attend Huddle Global, as we see them as the next generation of the world conquering entrepreneurial minds.

INDUSTRIES

- Huddle Global is a great opportunity for Industry to discover new talents, business partners and Network with people that matters.
- The idea is that sometimes you have to take a break from the “work” of your work to sharpen your skills. A dull axe won’t cut a tree nearly as effectively as a sharp one.
